ONLY THEE!

CAPT. PULLY COOTE. In the early dawn of morning,
When the night dreams pass away,
"Jesus only" fills the moments,
As I gird me fer life e fray.

Then, through hours that fellow quickly,
Let the shadow come or flee,
Humen aid, and love, and friendship
Far or near, I want, but Thee,

When the noonday glars is fiercest,
And my strength would seem to sway,
While an easier path's prosented,
I will choose the "Calvary way."

Fierce the conflict and temptation,
While the day is passing by,
Not to friends of earth I turn me,
"Jesus unly," still my cry.

Thus, through all the day's long battle. Thy enppert is given me,
I can rest on Thy sweet whisper,
I'm continuelly with Thee.

Has the day been full of darkness Cometh light at eventide?

More I love Thus, for the conflict

Drove me closer to Thy side.

Then, when cometh sleep refreshing, May my mighty vicious be Memories sweet of all the pathway, I bare walked with "culy Thee."

From victory into victory,
We never mean to yield.
Till every fee is, vanquished
And Satan quits the field.

The day of victory's coming, etc.

We're oure that we shall conquer,

Go sea, or land, we'll take our stand, Our colors we will show, With blood and fire we'rs sure to win

We've got God at our back, Though all the world oppose us, We'll not be driven back;

Wherever we may go.

Take courage, now, my comredes, And ever forward go, The battle it is raging, And mighty is the fee;

And finging is the toe;
But Jesus is your Captain,
The victory shall be won;
If faithful to the finish
